PROPOSED EXTRA AND CO-CURRICULAR CLUBS

Proposed extra and co-curricular clubs require the approval of the building principal and the Board of Education. Compensation for approval proposed extra and co-curricular clubs will be at the hourly/adult education rate ($57.36). The club advisor will only be compensated for the number of hours the Board of Education approved for the proposed club.

A written proposal to establish an extra or co-curricular club may be submitted to the building principal. The information submitted to the building principal must include, but is not limited to, club name, the advisor(s), the club's goal(s), club activities, meeting days, meeting times, meeting place and projected number of students participation.
